CFBN Career Webinar Series Join us Wednesday, April 1, 2020 (10 am - 3 pm)

In response to the current COVID-19 pandemic, we have rescheduled our in-person career fair to the fall (November 4th, CLICK HERE for more info) which will be offered in partnership with Illinois Tech at their Hermann Hall location. In the meantime, we are excited to share some industry resources for those looking for opportunities before then.

We created the “F&B Industry Career Webinar Series” to that end (CLICK HERE to view the full series on our site)! The series is a group of 20 minute chats presented by industry leaders at the top of each hour on April 1st from 10am - 2pm. The topics range all focus on career information for students and job-seekers specifically geared toward future jobs, internships and opportunities in the food and beverage industry.

1:00 pm Winning the Networking Numbers Game

Charley Orwig

VP of Marketing, DMA

This cliché has never been more true than in today's environment. The way to "beat the system" isn't about having the perfect resumé or applying to the most jobs online, it's about meeting (and impressing) as many people as you can - fast. Learn how to broaden your network, customize your value proposition and find your next role in this engaging workshop.

- Get exponential - how to meet the most people quickly
- Impress - with research and creativity
- Customize your value prop - dialing in communications materials
