ABOUT FSPCA
The Food Safety Preventive Controls Alliance (FSPCA) is a broad-based public-private alliance of key industry, academia and government stakeholders. It was established in late 2011 by a grant from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to Illinois Institute of Technology’s Institute for Food Safety and Health (IIT IFSH).

The mission of FSPCA is to support safe food production by developing and delivering educational programs that assist the food industry in complying with the preventive controls regulations that were promulgated in response to the Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA).

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
If the Food Safety Modernization Act impacts you, then you are a stakeholder of the FSPCA. This conference will give you an opportunity for an in-depth analysis of the latest information on FSMA implementation and the activities of the FSPCA.

COST TO ATTEND
Student Rate: $99.00 USD (sales end July 19 at 8:00 AM CDT)
Early Bird Registration: $199.00 USD (sales end June 30 at 11:30 PM CDT)
General Registration: $249.00 USD (sales end July 17 at 11:30 PM CDT)
At the Door: $279.00 USD (sales end July 19 at 8:00 AM CDT)

DAY 1 CONFERENCE SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Alliance Updates
Representatives of the FSPCA Implementation Work Group will present the latest data on the uptake of training efforts for Preventive Controls for Human Foods and Preventive Controls for Animal Food. In addition, there will be an update from the Produce Safety Alliance and Sprout Safety Alliance. The Produce Safety Alliance (PSA) is a collaboration between Cornell University, FDA, and USDA to prepare fresh produce growers to meet the regulatory requirements included in the FSMA Produce Safety Rule. The Sprout Safety Alliance (SSA), also a public-private alliance, is focused on training and outreach programs for stakeholders in the sprout production community, FSMA Produce Safety Rule, and best practices for improving sprout safety.

FDA Perspectives on FSMA Implementation and Inspections
Representatives of the FDA will review the status of FSMA implementation including modernization of the inspection process and regulator training to gain industry compliance with the FSMA rules.

FDA Food Safety Plan Builder Demo
Live demonstration of FDA’s Food Safety Plan Builder - a tool designed to assist owners/operators of food facilities with the development of food safety plans.

Challenges for FSPCA Instructors
A panel of Preventive Controls for Human and Animal Food and Foreign Supplier Verification Programs lead instructors talk about their training challenges, successes, and needs. Discussion will provide domestic and international perspectives.

Networking Reception
A networking reception will be an opportunity to enjoy food and drink with your colleagues and network among FSPCA stakeholders.

DAY 2 CONFERENCE AGENDA

FSPCA Technical Assistance Network and FDA FSMA Technical Assistance Network
Representatives from the FSPCA and FDA Technical Assistance Networks (TANs) will reveal behind the scenes collaboration efforts to assist stakeholders with FSMA questions and how we can leverage the TANs to benefit FSPCA lead instructors.

Intentional Adulteration Update
Hear from the FSPCA Intentional Adulteration Subcommittee and its plans for curriculum, roll out of training, and upcoming compliance date.

Marketing Tips and Tactics for Promoting Courses
Helpful information and real-world solutions from Lead Instructors who have had success filling their courses through strategic promotion and innovative marketing.

Introduction of the new FSVP Module
Answers to the most frequently asked questions about adding this new module into a preventive control course. How to teach the module, adjusting the agenda to accommodate the additional content, how to advertise this new module, and more!

Ask an Expert (during Lunch Break)
Look for FSMA topic-specific tables throughout the room. Each table will be manned with an expert in each topic.

FDA FSMA Guidance Overview
Highlights of FDA Guidance documents (with emphasis on most recently released documents) and how the FSMA Guidance documents can be used to enhance your training.

FSPCA Town Hall
Back by popular demand! Based on your feedback, the FSPCA Town Hall session has been extended to allow additional time for information sharing and collaboration. This is an opportune time to ask questions.
